BEATING BACK DEATH—Frank French, 60, of Niles, Mich., is recovering in Chicago's St. Joseph hospital, thanks to a newly-developed life-saving device called the Pacemaker. His heart stopped in his home Sunday and he was rushed to a Niles hospital, where his heart stopped more than 100 times, but doctors revived him each time. He was flown to Chicago where the Pacemaker fired electrical impulses into his heart. Now his heart is beating on its own. Here two nurses watch over him.

Police-Chased Car Hits 3rd Auto; 4 Killed

Wanted Driver Among Dead in Head-on Crash In Trumbull County

WARREN, Ohio (AP)—An automobile pursued by Warren police in a high speed chase crashed head-on into another car early today killing four Trumbull County persons.

One of the dead was William Visser, 26, of Hubbard Twp., who was being pursued along Ohio 5 by Warren Patrolmen James Julian and Leslie Edmunds.

The other three killed were in a car struck head-on by Visser's automobile, which the patrolmen said was weaving at high speed and had crossed the highway centerline. Those three were Mrs. Edith Lenney, 41, and Mrs. Margaret List, about 55, both of nearby Oakfield, and Charles Shay, about 50, of Warren.

Ralph Lilly, 59, of Leavittsburg, driver of the car hit by Visser's, is in fair condition at St. Joseph Hospital.

The cruiser chased Visser for about four miles at speeds up to 90 m.p.h.

"We were stopped, headed eastward, waiting for a train to pass when this guy shot around the front end of the train," Julian said. The road at this point crossed the Erie railroad tracks.

"He just missed getting hit by inches," Julian continued. "I threw the spotlight on him and yelled out the window at him to stop. But he just took off west-bound on Route 5 toward Ravenna."

The chase went westward along Ohio 5. The city cruiser had its red light blinking and its siren sounding and was joined in the chase by a city detective car and a Highway Patrol cruiser.

"We tried to get him to pull over, but he was weaving all over the road," Julian said. "We never had a chance to get alongside of him. His top speed was about 90 to 95 miles an hour. He had a little more speed than us and we couldn't get next to him because he was all over the road."

No shots were fired. The collision occurred west of Leavittsburg on Ohio 5, the patrolman said. The time was listed as 2:17 a.m.

"There was a great cloud of dust then both cars flew up in the air. It was the most horrible thing I ever saw in my life. . . It would have been better if that train would have hit him than to kill those innocent people."

When the two cars smashed into one another, the police car was only about 100 feet behind Visser, Julian said. To avoid hitting the wreckage, the cruiser was driven off the road and slammed into a guard rail. The two officers suffered bruises on their arms and legs.

Ike May Have Put Himself On Spot in Needling Congress

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower may have put not only the Democratic Congress but himself on a political spot with his demand for speedy action on highway, housing and wheat legislation.

Eisenhower caught the Democrats by surprise Wednesday with a special message outlining the damage to the economy that may result in these three politically potent fields if Congress dawdles.

There seemed little doubt that

Democrats will answer the President's request for emergency action with passage of a series of bills calling for government spending far beyond the limits Eisenhower has said he is willing to accept.

Because he emphasized the critical nature of the problems, Democrats think the President has put himself in a position where he may find it difficult to veto such measures.

Beyond that, the opposition party believes it can use the President's own words—such as his statement there is an "impending disaster on wheat"—to build up strength for attempts to override any vetoes that may be forthcoming.

Nuclear Arms Ban Studied

Big 3 Hold Informal Talks in Geneva

GENEVA (AP)—U.S., British and Soviet foreign ministers had a talk today about ways to speed up a ban on nuclear weapons tests, under discussion here for six months.

Taking time out from the problems of Berlin and Germany, they considered the possibility of organizing a new scientific study of problems connected with such a suspension.

They reached no final decision. If Big Three scientists got together, they might consider technical data connected with the detection of testing, including blasts in outer space. This might involve cooperation between the United States, British and Soviet governments in putting up artificial satellites to police such tests.

Secretary of State Herter, British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko met for 90 minutes in Herter's lakeside villa. Some hope was expressed in Washington that the Western powers will be able to reach an accord with the Soviets. But there are still a lot of big problems to be solved. They deal mainly with enforcing a test ban.

France, which has not yet joined the atomic club, did not take part in today's meeting of U.S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter, British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko. It was held several hours before the daily session of the Big Four conference on Germany.

The three atomic powers have been discussing a treaty to ban nuclear weapon tests for the past six months here in Geneva. The talks have been recessed until June 8 to avoid conflicting with the conference on Germany. Herter and Lloyd invited Gromyko to sit down with them and review progress to date.

Ohio House OKs Fair Trade Law

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The House today passed and sent to the Senate a bill to restore "fair trade" laws recently knocked out by the Ohio Supreme Court.

The measure would permit establishing minimum resale prices on trademarked items. The vote was 121-4.

Another house-passed bill would permit municipalities to sell or lease hospitals to county commissioners. The measure was designed especially to benefit Lancaster. The vote was 122-0. This bill also goes to the Senate.

The House voted 79-44 for a bill limiting the work week of municipal firemen to 56 hours, except in cities having a 40-hour week. The measure, that now goes to the Senate, would require municipalities to establish a two-platoon system under the 56-hour week.

Kurd Tribes Flee Red-Tainted Iraq

PASVEH, Iran (AP)—Thousands of Kurd tribesmen have fled across the rugged northwest Iranian frontier from Iraq rather than submit to domination by a pro-Communist chieftain.

There was sharp fighting in the frontier area as recently as four days ago, when about 5,000 Kurds crossed into Iran. Others of the tribe have fled into Turkey.

This information comes from Amir Aly Asheyara, the head khan (landlord) of a huge area occupied by Kurds of the Mamash tribe. He owns this village and about 150 other Kurdish villages in the southwestern part of Iran's Azerbaijan Province, only a few miles from the Iraqi border.

The Kurds, under a leader identified as Sheikh Raschid, left 13 Barzani tribesmen dead after a fight with them and Iraqi gendarmes. The khan said Raschid lost two dead and had two wounded.

The Barzanis are followers of Mullah Mustafa Barzani, who spent a dozen years in exile in the Soviet Union after an abortive attempt to establish a satellite Kurdistan in Iran, Iraq and Turkey.

The khan said Sheikh Raschid's people lacked sufficient ammunition to continue the battle and had to flee. He said the 1,000 refugee families now live in tent settlements not far from here.

Apparently many Kurds preceded Raschid's people across the frontier in a migration which began soon after the Iraqi revolution last July. This country is so rugged, vast and underpopulated that it is easy for Kurds to lose themselves in it.

This village is not likely to appear on many maps, but its leader is an influential Kurd, ruling about 20,000 people. His home is a hilltop dominating the primitive mud hut village and overlooking a valley richly green with winter wheat. Towering snowcap mountains surround the fertile valley.

The khan leases the land to his followers, taking a percentage of their production in payment. To Kurds this is normal.

Amir Aly is fiercely anti-Communist and says all his people are too. Most Kurds are equally anti-Communist, he maintains. He says the Soviets have no chance to promote another Kurdish uprising as they did 13 years ago, when Barzani with Soviet backing tried to set up an independent Kurdistan in northern Iraq and Iran.

Amir Aly, an educated, cultured man, remembers Barzani with bitterness and says the Mullah's followers murdered his brother, uncle and four nephews in a massacre of anti-Communist elements in Azerbaijan Province in 1946.

Sheriff Seeks Wallet Takers

Man, Women Said To Be Gypsies

The Pickaway County Sheriff's Department is searching for three women and a man who took a wallet containing $75 from a local farmhouse yesterday.

Deputy Charles Felkey said the money was taken from Frank Black who lives on Route 674 about one mile south of Marcy. The women and the man were identified as gypsies.

Black said they stopped at his farm and asked to borrow some salt. Two of the women went into the house to get the salt while the man and the other woman engaged Black in conversation.

Black said he became suspicious and went into the house where he found the women ransacking. He ordered them away. Later he learned the wallet and money were missing.

ABOUT 15 minutes after the incident, the sheriff's department was notified that $1,500 had been taken from a Franklin County woman by three women and a man answering the same description.

Deputy Felkey said a search of the entire area was made. The 1958 model car used by the women and man was not spotted.

Probe Pressed Into Crashes Of Airliners

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP)—It will be weeks, possibly months, before the public knows the causes of two airliner accidents—300 miles and 38 minutes apart—that claimed 33 lives. Both involved Capital Airlines planes bound for Atlanta.

A mysterious explosion ripped apart a turboprop Viscount high over Maryland, hurling all 31 aboard to their deaths. The tragedy occurred at 5:18 p.m. Tuesday 15 miles east of Baltimore when the air was turbulent from a thunderstorm.

Just 38 minutes earlier, a giant Constellation landing at Charleston, W.Va., toppled over the end of a runway and burst into flames, killing two of the 44 persons aboard.

The Viscount was en route from New York nonstop. The Constellation came from Buffalo, N.Y., via Pittsburgh.

Civil Aeronautics Board investigators converged on both locations but made it clear, after a full day's work, that it would take a long time to get any specific answers.

Was there a bomb on the Baltimore plane? This was the question everyone answered and it had no answer. CAB and Capital officials would not comment except to say they were examining every piece of evidence.

4-Phase Deal Presented at Geneva Parley

GENEVA (AP)—The Western powers proposed to Russia today that divided Berlin be made a united city under Big Four guarantees as the first step in a sweeping package plan to unify East and West Germany and begin global disarmament.

The massive, four-phase Western program was introduced in the fourth session of the Big Four foreign ministers conference as the Western response to Russia's demand that West Berlin be made a free city. It also countered Premier Nikita Khrushchev's call for a peace settlement with divided Germany.

The proposal provides for successive disarmament measures, including initial limits of 2½ million men in the armed forces of the United States and Russia, and leading eventually to limitation and possible withdrawal of all foreign troops (Soviet and Western) from Germany and neighboring areas.

It would unify Germany in 30 months. United Germany would be free to elect membership in either the Atlantic Alliance (NATO) or the Soviet bloc's Warsaw Pact or to choose a neutral policy.

Whatever the choice, the big powers, Germany and other European countries would take steps to avoid any change in the East. West balance of power and could enter into agreements against aggression. Western leaders have long expressed confidence Germany would line up with the West.

As a package the plan had no prospects of even serious consideration by Russia. Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko has already rejected it as a "tangle" of unrelated issues. But parts of it, especially the Berlin proposal, conceivably could lead to some bargaining.

Secretary of State Herter, presenting the package on behalf of the United States, Britain and France, told Gromyko the plan "clearly shows that our governments have gone very far to meet Soviet preoccupations."

He declared there were important modifications in Western policy as it has stood since 1955.

"We earnestly hope," he said, "that the Soviet government will for its part make a comparable effort and thus make it possible to find at least a basis for mutual understanding."

Berlin, in the first phase of the package program, would be united by "free elections to be held through all Berlin under supervision" of either the big powers or the United Nations. The United States, Russia, Britain and France would keep their troops until the final German peace settlement provided for in the fourth phase.

A city council would be responsible for administering the whole city under the general supervision of the Big Four, but the powers could intervene in city affairs only by unanimous vote. How this arrangement would affect East Germany's capital in East Berlin was not stated.

The West made a compromise approach to Russia's demand that East and West Germany must negotiate reunification directly between themselves. It proposed in the second phase the creation of a mixed German committee of 25 West and 10 East Germans to make plans for increased contacts between the two Germans and to draft an all-German electoral law.

His Wheeling Limited by Court

CLEVELAND (AP)—The other day, while out riding, Calvin Kline, 31, crashed a red light while making a left turn.

He had made the turn from the wrong side of the street. He sped across the path of approaching traffic, but a policeman saw him and arrested him. He was charged with reckless driving.

Today Kline appeared before Municipal Judge August Prytzel, who listened to testimony and then fined him $25 and ordered him not to do any pleasure riding for 30 days.

This means that Kline can use his bicycle only for going to and from work.

Pay-as-Go Ohio Road Plan OK'd

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Senate early today assured Ohio of at least a 300-million-dollar-a-year highway construction program on a pay-as-you-go basis. It will be financed by a two-cent-a-gallon increase in the gasoline and diesel fuel tax.

The Senate passed, after hours of microscopic and legalistic inspection, the first two of Gov. Michael V. DiSalle's tax bills. Both had been approved previously by the House, but both must return to the House for approval of amendments.

A bill to increase the barrel tax on 3.2 beer from $1.50 to $2.50 passed the Senate Wednesday afternoon without too much trouble, 23-9.

But the vote on the bill to produce 116 millions in the next two years through a tax increase on both gasoline and diesel fuel was another story.

In the afternoon, Sen. Ray T. Miller (D-Cuyahoga), son of the Democratic chairman in Cuyahoga County, said the gasoline tax measure was not in order because it proposed to set aside the 116-million-dollar gasoline tax in a fund which had not yet been created by the Legislature.

The fund-creating bill was languishing in a Senate committee. The Senate agreed with Miller that the cart was before the horse. By an 18-14 vote, it sent the bill back to its State Government Committee.

Much later, following a caucus, Senate Democrats agreed to write into the gasoline tax increase bill a provision setting up the highway construction fund to receive the estimated 116 million-dollar yield. Then, by a 30-13 vote the question of recommitment was reconsidered.

The Senate beat back a number of amendments, including one by Minority Leader C. Stanley Mechem (R-Athens) to limit the increase to one cent a gallon and another to spread the increase among local governments.

The Senate floor votes on the gasoline and beer tax bills came against a background of compromise on two other DiSalle tax measures.

In lieu of a 35-million-dollar-a-year sales tax on machinery used directly in farm and industrial production, the Senate Taxation Committee accepted a quadrupled tax on corporation franchises. It is estimated to produce another 32 million dollars a year for the state treasury.

The bill to increase corporation franchise fees under the compromise would retain the one-tenth of one per cent tax on state banks and make state building and loan firms subject to the same one-tenth per cent levy. The revised measure also would keep the minimum corporation fee at $50 as approved by the House against a present $25 minimum fee.

The Senate Taxation Committee today probably will accept, after weeks of bickering, a sales-tax revision measure—an omnibus bill which now includes elimination of sales tax stamps, reimposition of the penny tax on purchases between 16 and 41 cents, purchases of ice, wine and liquor and occupancy of hotel and motel rooms.

The watered-down bill, sponsors say, probably will produce about 120 millions in new revenue in the next two years.

The provision for ending use of sales tax stamps probably will be kept in the "omnibus" bill at DiSalle's insistence.

Democrat Committee members refused Republican requests for time to study effects of the additional boost in franchise fees.

"I have never seen anything worse," said Sen. Lowell Fess, Yellow Springs Republican and a veteran of 16 years in the Legislature.

"I think it is downright low down to bring in a bill of this kind and fust it on the people of Ohio."

Culture Center To Aid Peace

Ike Breaks Ground For Gotham Project

NEW YORK (AP)—President Eisenhower broke ground today for a 75-million-dollar cultural center and predicted it will be a mighty influence for world peace. The President took part in ceremonies marking the start of the Lincoln Center for the Performing Arts. He flew from Washington for the occasion.

In his talk Eisenhower said the center—which will include a new Metropolitan Opera House and a new home for the New York Philharmonic—will enrich the lives of people generally.

He added: "The beneficial influence of this great cultural adventure will not be limited to our own borders. Here will occur a true exchange of the fruits of national cultures."

"From this will develop a growth that will spread to the corners of the earth, bringing with it a kind of human message that only individuals—not governments—can transmit."

"Here will develop a mighty influence for peace and understanding throughout the world."

The site of the center, an area of three and a half blocks on 64th street west of Broadway, was cleared of run-down dwellings and other buildings for the huge construction project to be completed in 1963.

Eisenhower said the center symbolizes not only an increasing interest in America in cultural matters, but also "a stimulating approach to one of the nation's pressing problems: urban blight."

"It is a cooperative venture in which federal and local government, artistic groups, large foundations and private citizens are joining forces," he said.

Scientists To Create Alaskan Harbor with 5 Nuclear Bombs

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Two scientists disclosed today they are taking steps to prevent reflected shock waves from breaking winds and causing other damage in Soviet Siberia when they use big nuclear bombs to create a new harbor in Alaska.

As planned by the U.S. government, five nuclear bombs will be set off, probably in 1961, to excavate a harbor in Kotzebue Sound, on the northwestern Alaska coast.

The site is only about 200 miles from Siberia. The researchers said they had learned that under certain conditions shock waves could carom off upper air layers and return to earth more than 300 miles away with damaging effect.

Blast waves from the bombs ride on air-ducting layers, said J. W. Reed and H. W. Church of the Sandia Corp. They addressed the second Plovers Symposium on Industrial and Scientific Uses of Nuclear Explosions. The symposium is sponsored by the Atomic Energy Commission and the University of California's Lawrence Radiation Laboratory.

It was these air-ducting layers that caused shock waves from the Nevada atom bomb tests to leap froving over the immediately surrounding area and come down 70 miles or more away from Las Vegas and other inhabited places with window-busting effect, Reed and Church said.

There would be one chance in 10, they added, that it could carry enough pressure 70 miles to break most windows and some doors.

During the spring of 1961 the scientists plan to establish the air-ducting pattern around the Kotzebue area with conventional explosives. The idea will be to protect inhabited Alaska areas as well as Siberia.

Bard Leaves $297,874

Kroger Store In Entered

Circleville Police are investigating a burglary last night at the Kroger Supermarket on Lancaster Pike.

Chief Elmer Merriman said a portable radio was the only store property discovered missing. He said entry was gained by breaking a large door glass, the impact leaving a huge hole.

Sgt. Turner Ross and Patrolman William Bruns said a rock apparently used to smash the glass was found inside the store. According to officers, pry marks were found on all drawers in the store office.

Police said the intruder or intruders left the store the same way entry was made. The incident was reported by H. K. Lanman, store manager.

'No Hope against Taxes

The mythical "average" young American can be sure of one thing — lots of money will slip through his fingers in the form of taxes. At age 29, with 36 years of working life in front of him, he faces the certainty of paying at least 25.3 per cent of his earnings in taxes.

The Commerce Clearing House, a reporting agency on tax and business matters, figures that during the 36 years taxes will take $5.05 each working day, on the average, or $47,000 until he reaches the retirement age of 65.

This is the way his 36-year tax bill breaks down in its major components: Federal income tax, $20,870; social security, $7,248; property taxes, $7,710. All his life he'll probably also be paying taxes on gasoline, cigarettes, liquor, telephone and the numerous excise taxes.

Whichever way you figure it, it's a cheerless way to start a young man on his way.

Cocktail Parties—Baboon Babble

By Hal Boyle

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—One way to tell a person's age is by his attitude toward cocktail parties.

If he looks forward to cocktail parties and feels each one is exciting and different, he is very, very young.

But the more he attends the more all seem alike. The modern cocktail party, like the modern bull fight—which in a way it resembles—has its own ceremony and ritual. But in time cocktail parties become as hard to tell apart as mothballs.

The only difference between one's first cocktail party and one's thousand and first are the date—and a feeling of gathering numbness.

But that feeling of numbness is important. It is the hallmark of the successful cocktail party.

Everything about the cocktail party is formalized and more predictable than the weather. The food, the drink, the guests—even the conversation—follow an inexorable and changeless pattern.

There is always a tray of those gnat-bite-sized sandwiches made of new wallboard and old library paste. There is always a pot of caviar. This is supposed to make you feel like you're enjoying an orgy at the court of Catherine the Great. But the stuff usually tastes as if it had been made the night before by the hostess out of fish oil and leftover pellets from her son's air rifle.

The drinks at a cocktail party fall into two classes. If the host is cheap, they are weak and watery. If the host is really trying to impress somebody, the drinks are so loaded one has the feeling he has just accepted a double-barreled shotgun—aimed at his head.

The guests at a cocktail party seem so normal and human when they first come into the room. Just a bit reserved perhaps. But an hour later all the shy Dr. Jekylls have magically turned into leering, pawing Dr. Hydes.

The sedate businessman suddenly wants to prove he can still drink a martini while standing on his head on the sofa, a feat he learned in college. The prime housewife all at once begins to act like she was the daughter of a marriage between Dracula and Mata Hari.

And everyone who had so little to say on arrival now becomes a person with a message of salvation for all mankind! They put their foreheads together and begin shouting at the top of their lungs. This isn't conversation. It is baboon babble.

Psychiatrists are divided on why people throw cocktail parties. One school holds it is merely an easy way to pay off social debts en masse. The other school holds that it is an unconscious and sadistic attempt by the host to exact social revenge on people he secretly detests.

Probably both schools of thought are right.

The problem remains as to why a husband ever goes to a cocktail party. The answer here is very clear.

He goes because somebody mailed his wife the invitation. And the modern wife will drag her husband to anything she's invited to—including, probably, a blood transfusion. Anything to get out of the house.

Simple Language Is Best

By George Sokolsky

In the medical profession, doctors used to write prescriptions in a mysterious script which even pharmacists had to guess at. The patient, of course, was hopelessly mystified. Today, most of the medications of great value come clearly labeled and if the doctor or patient demands "original bottle" or "original label," the mystery is all gone. The details of medication are clear.

However, in the so-called intellectual disciplines, the immediate objective of the learned is to state a case in language which no one is supposed to understand who is not of that particular discipline. I take, at random, a sentence from a study on gangs—a subject with which I have nearly 60 years of familiarity. Says the author:

"However, we are especially interested in a third possibility, namely, that in the majority of cases psychogenic and sub-cultural factors blend in a single causal process, as pollen and a particular bodily constitution work together to produce hay fever."

Now what this man says is very simple. Translated into non-discipline English, he means heredity and environment can combine to produce a juvenile delinquent. If he said it as simply as that, he would be just a simple person, not an intellectual. On the other hand, nobody would question the intellectual status of William James. But note the simplicity of language:

"The earlier men were hunting men, and to hunt a neighboring tribe, kill the males, loot the village and possess the females, was the most profitable, as well as the most exciting, way of living."

Or, if one wishes another example, there is the classical essay by Thomas Huxley on "Science and Culture" in which he says:

"Once upon a time, a boy, with nothing to depend upon but his own vigorous nature, was thrown into the thick of the struggle for existence in the midst of a great manufacturing population. He seems to have had a hard fight, inasmuch as, by the time he was 30 years of age, his total disposable funds amounted to 20 pounds."

"Nevertheless, middle life found him giving proof of his comprehension of the practical problems he had been roughly called upon to solve, by a career of remarkable prosperity."

I could go on and on citing from the great masters of knowledge to show that the truly intellectual minds could state their cases with simplicity of language. And speaking about governments or gangs or corporations or anything that requires unity of action and compromise of private positions, let us turn to the greatest of all intellectuals, Aristotle, for plain and forthright speech:

"In the first place there must be a union of those who cannot exist without each other; namely, of male and female, that the race may continue, and of natural ruler and subject, that both may be preserved."

In a word, for convenience or joint operations or even for the joy of living, there are those who must gang up and join forces. And that, of course, can produce a gang as well as a marriage, a rumble as well as a war.

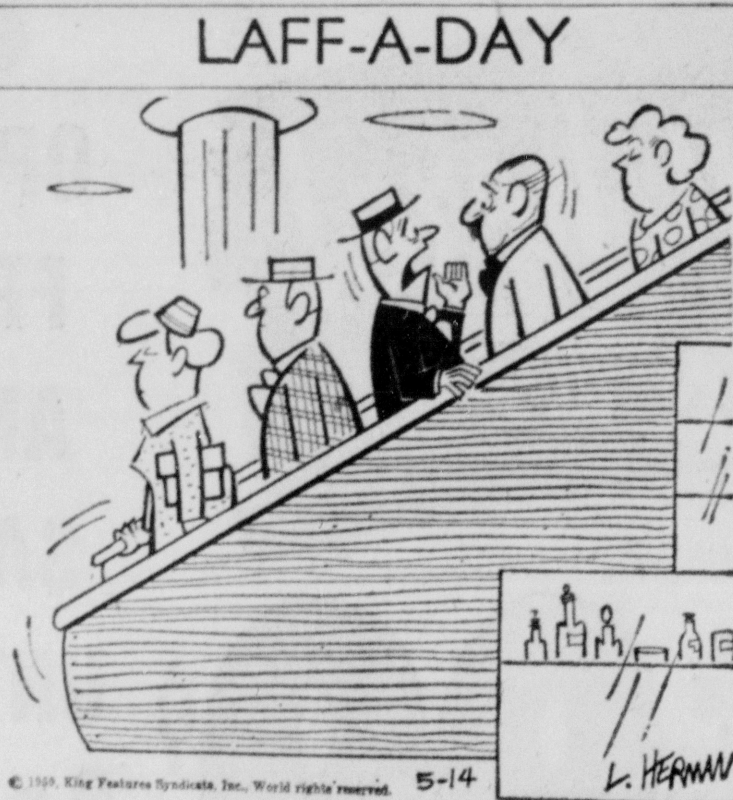

The intellectual's excuse for complexity of speech is that he seeks precision and therefore cannot use loose language, as for instance, "We have now to consider what and what kind of government is suitable to what and what kind of men."

The confusing language of some intellectuals is unquestionably due to the complexity of their processes of thought. They are not as sure of their premises as Aristotle was.

The social scientists particularly encounter difficulties because their subjects cross each other, sociology having much to do with economics and anthropology and history and geography. In a word, the disciplines are compartmentalized phases of the whole of human knowledge and he who specializes too narrowly often knows too little about his subject to know anything at all. To live, he must show off, and showing off gets him into conflict with the specialists in other subjects who are also showing off.

I had the good fortune to study under truly great minds, men who have left permanent marks upon the intellectual history of this country, such men as Charles A. Beard, James Harvey Robinson, Walter Pittkin, Dickinson Miller and similar personalities. I knew John Dewey and studied Marxism nearly half a century ago under Vladimir Simkhovitch.

These men did not require complex sentences and confused speech to prove that they were intellectuals. They were intelligent.

THREE STORIES brought home from school by my 12-year-old son, Jonathan:

1. Q. What weighs 1,000 pounds, sings, has four legs, and is yellow? A.—Two 500-pound canaries.

2. Did you hear about the man who fell out of a fourteenth story window but didn't even suffer a scratch? The fortunate fellow was wearing a light fall suit.

3. Kid in class was asked if he knew the meaning of the word bachelor. "I sure do," answered the kid. "It's what my daddy wishes he was."

A phone operator icily informed an importunate college boy, "I'm sorry, sir, but that number has been taken out." "I know darn well she's been taken out," wailed the boy. "What I'm trying to find out is: by whom?"

Advice to Sunbathers

By Herman N. Bundesen, M.D.

The warm summer days will be here before we know it. And most of you, I know, are anxious to get out into the sun for the first sun bath.

So, while we still have time to give the matter a little thought, let me give you a bit of advice on what you should and should not do to prevent sunburn.

Some persons, of course, burn more easily than others.

As a rule, those of you between the ages of 21 and 50 probably will burn more readily than those who are younger or older. Hence, I want to especially caution all of you, 40 and over, to be extremely careful of overexposure because of the often present danger of sunstroke.

You also are likely to burn more easily if you recently have been taking such drugs as chlorpromazine, any of the sulfa drugs or a lot of barbiturates. These drugs apparently increase the body's sensitivity to sunlight.

Perfume on your skin is apt to have the same effect. So do skin preparations with a tar base, such as those often used for treating complexion troubles.

Blondes, redheads and persons with blue eyes, are usually more sensitive to sunburn.

The sun's rays are apt to produce the most severe sunburn between the hours of 10 a. m. and 2 p. m. Clouds, remember, don't necessarily protect you from these rays. And the reflection of the sun in water or sand increases the risk of sunburn.

Therefore, limit your first day's exposure to 10 minutes or less, and then gradually increase it day by day.

Symptoms of sunburn generally begin anywhere from six to 12 hours after exposure. Even if the skin only feels hot to the touch it should be treated as a burn. Of course, if there is severe blistering, you should consult a doctor.

Until the skin is thoroughly tanned I suggest you use protective preparations such as salves, unguents or oils containing zinc oxide, titanium or calamine.

Incidentally, many of you, I'm sure, have heard the story that you run a greater risk of having a sunstroke if you go out in the sun without wearing a hat. Actually, leaving the hat off permits the air to circulate over your scalp and may make you feel considerably cooler.

Question and Answer
M. G.: Lately I wake up at night with numb fingers or hand. What causes this?

Answer: If numbness of fingers and hand occur only at night, it may be due to compression of a nerve caused by sleeping on an arm.

country's southern neighbors—or some factions of them — expressing their attitude toward the United States. Nixon called at once for a reappraisal of our policy toward Latin America.

In the year that has passed what has been done to improve that policy? And what is the attitude of Latin Americans toward the United States now?

This country has taken a number of steps toward closer cooperation with, and more understanding for, Latin America. But the attitude of the people there toward the United States is far from all good.

Only two months ago a group of South American publishing and broadcasting executives, visiting this country, said the United States is losing friends fast in their homeland.

Very recently Associated Press correspondents in the capitals of 10 South American republics questioned students, workers, politicians, editors, businessmen and labor leaders to find out how our neighbors feel now.

The answer was: almost no change. Relations with the United States in some countries have deteriorated. In others — for example, Argentina and Brazil — some improvement was noted.

But the 10 correspondents reported that the great masses of the people have not felt any change. Most answers to the question of how the United States could improve the situation came to this: money and more tact in administering aid.

Both at the time of Nixon's mistreatment and since, Communists have been blamed as the nucleus of the attacks on the vice president and the continuing anti-United States feeling there.

The charge that the United States has played too cozy with Latin American dictators has been thrown at this country often. Nixon was aware of it on his trip.

So was President Eisenhower's brother, Dr. Milton Eisenhower, who visited Latin America after Nixon's trip.

Both came back recommending a much stiffer American attitude toward dictators.

Here are things the United States has done in the past year to improve the situation:

The Eisenhower administration has backed and will approve the billion dollar Inter-American Development Bank to make loans in Latin America alone; it has asked and backed increases in the capital of the World Bank and International Monetary Fund from which Latin American nations as well as others benefit.

The administration is asking Congress for a 25 per cent increase in technical assistance funds for Latin America in 1960; the U. S. Development Loan Fund is stepping up its credits to Latin American nations; and moves are under way to encourage further the already big flow of U. S. private investments into Latin America.

These actions, if carried through, may seem plentiful to a U. S. citizen. To a Latin American, then still may seem too little.

Her JUICY APPLE PIE
changed his whole outlook.

'Rainy Day' Wins Best Of Show Award in Exhibit

Approximately 150 persons attended the opening of the Spring Exhibit of the Circleville Art League in the gallery of the Pickaway County Courthouse Sunday.

The entrants were judged by Mr. Richard Kersell, Columbus. The best of show award was won by Miss Martha E. Reid for her watercolor, "Rainy Day". Miss Reid is a Corwin Street grade school teacher.

She was awarded grand prize, the judge said, because watercolor is a difficult medium to work in, with certain limitations; however, good composition, good pictorial feeling and good basic structure were achieved.

"The Artie", a special award to the most creative piece went to Miss Ruth E. Montelius for her "Metropolis", an abstract watercolor. This was Miss Montelius' first attempt in abstract art.

Mrs. Wayne Griffith won 1st prize for her watercolor, "Pink Horse"; Mrs. Kenneth Luna, 2nd for "Two"; Miss Montelius, 3rd for her pastel, "Jay".

In the oil division Mrs. William Lyons was awarded 1st prize for her "Carolina Coast"; Oren A. Webb, 2nd, for "Around the World" and Miss Montelius, 3rd, for her "Night-View of DuPont".

Mrs. Griffith won 1st for "City Windows"; Miss Montelius, 2nd for "Metropolis" and Mrs. Gene Kuhns, 3rd for "Dancers".

Cathy Griner, the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Ned Griner, won the grand prize in the Junior Art League division for her oil painting of "Our House". Elizabeth Anderson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Anderson, won first prize for her still life in oil; Lynn Reichelderfer, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Reichelderfer, was awarded 2nd prize for her oil landscape; Nancy Yates, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Yates, won 3rd prize for her crayon drawing.

Fireman Alerted, Then Shuns Call

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Bill Stuck is one of neighboring Kettering's ever-ready volunteer firemen. So, although he was intent on spending an evening home, he leaped to his feet when he heard a call for his company on his home short-wave receiver.

"Go to 960 East Dr. There's a fire there."

Stuck was well toward the door when he slowed his steps. He hurried to the telephone; called his dispatcher.

"Cancel that call to 960 East Dr. It's a false alarm," he said. Then he settled back to enjoy a leisurely evening at home. Home is 960 East Dr.

OSU Policy Groups To Meet Openly

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Meetings of policy-making groups at Ohio State University henceforth will be open to the public, a member of the board of trustees has confirmed.

The decision was disclosed Wednesday night by the Ohio State Journal.

The disclosure followed board action Friday to support a faculty council recommendation against future participation by Ohio State in the Rose Bowl. The council's decision was made behind closed doors, the board spokesman said.

Confirmation of the open-door policy was made by Brig. Gen. Carlton S. Dargusch, who was Board chairman until succeeded in that post at Friday's meeting. Dargusch abstained in the 5-0 vote to discontinue Big Ten Rose Bowl contracts because "the public had not been afforded an opportunity to be heard before decision was reached on such an important matter of university policy."

The newspaper said the open-door directive was agreed upon by trustees prior to their last meeting. Dargusch, explaining the directive, said:

"The board . . . has instructed the (OSU) president that henceforth all meetings of university subordinate administrative bodies, such as the athletic council and the faculty council, (whose decisions involve) university policy, must be open to the public . . . at such meetings, all interested persons shall have the full right to be heard before a decision is reached."

Ohio SUB OKd By Auto Firms

Retroactive Pay
Due Back to '57'

DETROIT (AP)—The automotive Big Three—General Motors, Ford and Chrysler—have agreed to pay Supplemental Unemployment benefits (SUB) to Ohio workers back to the fall of 1957.

Ohio legalized such payments in addition to state unemployment compensation last week.

GM workers will be eligible back to Oct. 7, 1957, and will split up an estimated one million dollars. Ford retroactivity goes back to September 1957 and a UAW spokesman said $821,000 is available for them.

No figures were available immediately on how much is available to Chrysler employees. But the UAW said agreement on payment of SUB, if and when legalized, was worked out with Chrysler in negotiations last fall when new three-year contracts were signed.

Ford, GM and the UAW worked out distribution in recent post-contract negotiations.

Ohio formerly barred SUB payments from company-paid pools in addition to unemployment compensation.

Under a UAW-GM agreement, Ohio workers have been allowed to file for SUB, as if it were legal, against the day when such might be the case. Those claims now are being processed.

Neither GM nor the UAW had any figures immediately on how many Ohio GM workers might qualify for supplemental benefits.

GM said its Ohio employment averaged 66,000 in 1958.

Tibet Rebellion

Appears To Be Dead

NEW DELHI (AP) — The rebellion in Tibet appears to be dying. It may already be dead.

Reports reaching the border towns of Kalimpong and Gangtok indicate the uprising of Khampa tribesmen, which flared fiercely late in March and early April, has been snuffed out by the superior guns of Red Chinese occupation forces.

The provisional government which the resistance forces proclaimed a month ago has not been heard from.

Refugees straggling out of the Himalayan land of the lamas picture it as held firmly under the heel of Chinese overlords determined to prove they can rule without public approval — and without the Dalai Lama if need be.

Weekly Food Review

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Pork and chicken, which rate near the top of any housewife's shopping list when she's bargain hunting, should be right up there again this weekend.

The nation's supermarkets and neighborhood grocery stores offer a wide list of specials on various pork cuts. Frying chickens predominate among ads featuring fowl.

Most of the pork deals are for the less expensive cuts such as small picnic hams, fresh and smoked butts and smoked shoulders. Smoked hams and bacon also are offered, but not as widely.

The large number of pork items reflect marketings from last fall's 17 per cent greater pig crop. These porkers, plus expectations of a 13 per cent rise in spring pigs, are expected to boost output substantially ahead of 1958.

Fryer prices, on the downgrade for some time, are slashed another 2 to 10 cents a pound in a number of areas.

Eggs also are on the toboggan, dropping 2 to 4 cents a dozen over a wide area.

Special buys on fish are uncommon at this time of year, but rising imports of shrimp have forced prices lower despite smaller catches by U.S. fishermen.

Best vegetables this week are asparagus, iceberg lettuce (although somewhat variable in quality and condition), carrots, celery, new cabbage, potatoes, red radishes.

Unlike almost all operas, Verdi composed no overture for his "Otello." The curtain goes up and Shakespeare's tragedy, "Othello," begins. Later Verdi's music begins.

es, spinach and green or white onions.

Fruit features now are Florida oranges and grapefruit, California valencia and naval oranges, lemons, bananas, pineapples and a few remaining apples if you shop carefully. Increasing shipments make strawberries look pretty good, too, while Western pears and watermelons also are good buys.

Rebellion in Honduras Reported Crushed

TEGUZIGALPA, Honduras (AP)—About 500 Honduran rebels were reported in flight today after an unsuccessful attempt to seize Gracias, an old trading center near the Guatemalan frontier.

The government said civilians helped troops rout the armed band when it attacked Gracias, the capital of Lempira state, on Monday night.

Newfoundland, an island in the North Atlantic, has a population of about 300,000.

NOTICE OF SALE OF BONDS
Sealed bids will be received by the undersigned Auditor of the City of Circleville, Pickaway County, Ohio, at his office in the City Hall, Circleville, until 12 o'clock noon Eastern Standard Time on the 22nd day of May, 1959, at which time said bids will be publicly opened and read for the purchase of bonds of said City in the aggregate amount of $137,000.

Said bids will be promptly considered by the Council of said City.

Said bonds shall be dated the first day of June, 1959, shall be in the denomination of $1,000 each, shall be numbered consecutively commencing with Number 1, shall draw interest payable semi-annually on the first day of June and on the first day of December of each year, beginning December 1, 1959, at the rate of four per centum per annum, but anyone desiring to do so may present a bid for said bonds based upon their bearing a different rate of interest, provided that where a fractional interest rate is bid, such fraction shall be one-quarter of one per cent or multiples thereof.

Said bonds mature as follows: $13,000 on December 1 in each year from 1960 to 1962 and $14,000 on December 1 in each year from 1963 to 1969, inclusive. The amount of said issue is subject to reduction and the maturities to adjustment accordingly, in the event of cash payments of assessments received by the City before the date of sale.

Said bonds are issued in anticipation of the collection of special assessments heretofore levied to pay the property owners' portion of the cost of constructing a sewage pumping station, sewers, requisite house service connections and necessary appurtenances in Circleville Sewer District No. 1, and are payable at the City's legal depository, presently The Third National Bank of Circleville, and are supported by limited taxes.

Said bonds will be sold to the highest bidder offering the lowest interest rate at not less than par and accrued interest. If each of two or more bids is the highest bid offering the lowest interest rate, the bonds will be awarded on such one of said highest bids as is chosen by the Auditor by lot. All bids must be accompanied by a bond or certified check on a solvent bank other than the bidder's payable to the City of Circleville in the amount of one per cent of the par amount of the bonds bid for, upon condition that if the bid is accepted, the bidder will receive and pay for such bonds within a reasonable time after the award thereof or forfeit the same as liquidated damages in the event said condition is not fulfilled. Bids shall be sealed and endorsed "Bid for Sewer District Improvement Bonds".

The proceedings for the issue have been taken under the supervision of Squire Sanders & Dempsey, Bond Attorneys, Cleveland, Ohio, whose approving opinion will be furnished to the successful bidder at the City's expense. A complete transcript of proceedings and the printed bonds will be furnished by the City, together with a certificate showing no litigation pending or threatened at the time of the delivery to enjoy delivery or to contest the validity of the bonds or the power to issue them or the levy of taxes for their payment.

In the event the interest on said bonds should by act of Congress be come subject to Federal Income Taxes prior to delivery, the successful bidder may refuse to accept delivery and in such event his bond or certified check will be returned without interest. It is contemplated that said Council of the City will meet at 11:30 o'clock A. M. on the 22nd day of May, 1959, to consider said bids and make an award. The right is reserved to reject bids. # Akron's Anti-Shoplifting Campaign Gets Good Start

By THOMAS S. HANEY
Akron Beacon Journal Writer
AKRON, Ohio (AP)—She could have been any one of the thousands who crowd the downtown shopping district every business day. But this young woman:

Expertly picked four expensive men's suits from a rack, folded them, hangers and all, under her full skirt, and walked rapidly to an exit where she was whisked away by a waiting car.

Although the performance is not typical—it is said almost nothing is typical in shoplifting—it served one purpose. It has united Akron's mercantile community in a stamp-out-shoplifting campaign.

The work is just starting. But already it is showing results. High time. Shoplifting losses nationally ran to two billion dollars last year by best estimates. Is shoplifting a racket carried on mainly by professionals such as the woman who made off with the four suits? Let Paul Brothers, chief of the protection force at O'Neil's Department Store in Akron, answer:

"At least 75 to 80 per cent of it here and in every other store is done by juveniles, most of them young girls. The biggest percentage of them are good kids from good homes—most have money with them when we try to find out why they did it."

"And most can't say why they did it except that shoplifting is considered the thing to do among the other youngsters these days."

Brothers recalls that one case netted two boys who tucked down in their belts, under T-shirts, a stack of the latest releases pilfered from his store's phonograph record department.

Brothers is a man who learned sleuthing with the Marine Corps counter-intelligence section. He is seldom surprised.

This time he was. Neither boy was especially disturbed about being caught, he said. Both were disturbed over having to miss a party that night.

"They actually told us," said Brothers, "that every party guest had been assigned to steal in advance for the affair. One bunch was out to steal the food, another the drinks and these two had been given the job of bringing records."

Alone the same line was the teenager with the unpaid-for pair of slacks and a $1 pillow in her shopping bag, often called "the shoplifter's friend."

In her purse were bills and change amounting to about $20. The money was hers. Why had she stolen?

She said the pillbox was for her boy friend and "I knew he'd appreciate it more if I could tell him I stole it for him." The slacks she took for herself "just for the hell of it."

Something else again is the shoplifting professional. By store and police figures, he accounts for about 10 per cent of shoplifting arrests.

Mostly he—but more often "she"—is a team player.

Some will steal on order from an individual who, say, wants a blue sweater. This kind makes more money.

The other kind is the indiscriminate taker who picks up what he can get and unloads it through a "fence" for whatever he can get.

A woman was apprehended with six pounds of frozen steak—in her brassiere.

A favorite stunt is wearing "booster bloomers." (A "booster" is a general term for shoplifter.)

The "bloomers" are just that—large-sized, special-made jobs tied securely at the waist and both knees with a deeply slashed pocket on one or both sides.

In a flash an article is off a counter and in the bloomers. The last wearer who turned up here had nine dresses and was just starting.

Another type is the "fitting room user." A woman detective recently caught two girls, one a minister's daughter, with two stolen bathing suits each. They had gone into a fitting room, put their arms through the suits and hung them on their backs under their coats.

"Pros" are generally known to store forces except for the very new recruits. Downtown merchants with considerable help from Detective Capt. Carroll Curtright's forces broke up an invading horde in Akron this spring.

Four crews of women in twos and threes were out under a "foreman." Four of them were jailed and sent to other Ohio cities for prosecution.

Their "warehouse" was a rent-

Woodworker, 74, Just Can't Quit

By JAMES I. SMITH
Herald Staff Writer

A local master craftsman, unsatisfied with a life of well-deserved retirement, turned his talents to wood craft and has become an expert in less than three years.

Charles Schlegler, 74, 422 E. Franklin St., retired from his sheet metal profession in 1956 after more than 58 years and found he wasn't happy unless he was doing something, as is so often the case.

His turned his nimble fingers and hands to wood craft and has turned out an untold and uncounted number of scale model homes, cabinets, wall fixtures, log cabins and barns.

Schlegler has practically outfitted his home with the affections of his hobby, plus presenting his family and relatives with numerous objects.

SCHLEGLER started work at 13-years of age for Bill Haswell. From Haswell he learned the sheet metal trade and stayed with him for 27 years.

Haswell's metal works was located in the present location of the Kochheiser Hardware Co., 113 W. Main St. Schlegler said he helped lay the block for the building.

He left Haswell for employment at Curtiss Wright Aircraft for three years. He then went into business for himself, opening a shop behind his home, located across from the Franklin Street School.

Schlegler said he works at his hobby almost as many hours as he did when in business and loves every minute of it.

His hobby started innocently enough, making wooden moons for wall fixtures. This expanded into other wall knick-knacks, such as roosters, animals and birds of all types.

Corner racks for walls followed and it was then that his wife, Anna, suggested selling these items at State Parks. He agreed, worked all week on his wares and his wife sold them on Sundays.

THIS PROFITABLE business went along for several years until license fees, vendors fees, taxes and overhead forced the Schleglers to abandon this miniature hobby-turned-business enterprise.

Last winter, Schlegler delved deeper into his hobby and took on the more challenging work of manufacturing scale model buildings.

In less than a year's work he has constructed a complete bedroom outfit for his wife, including vanity dresser, a clothes dresser and vanity seat. This was a surprise for her birthday.

He has completely lined their kitchen with cabinets and recently built a large living room cabinet for whatnots with a replica of a church on top, complete with electric lights.

His homes and scale models of buildings take him about a week apiece. Many of them are wood in kind and several models are made of clear pine.

To accomplish this intricate and fascinating hobby, Schlegler uses two machines purchased at a retail store, a jig saw and electric drill.

THE REST of his equipment he made himself. These include a band saw, engine lathe, table saw and a knife. Other materials used are glue and varnish to paint his works.

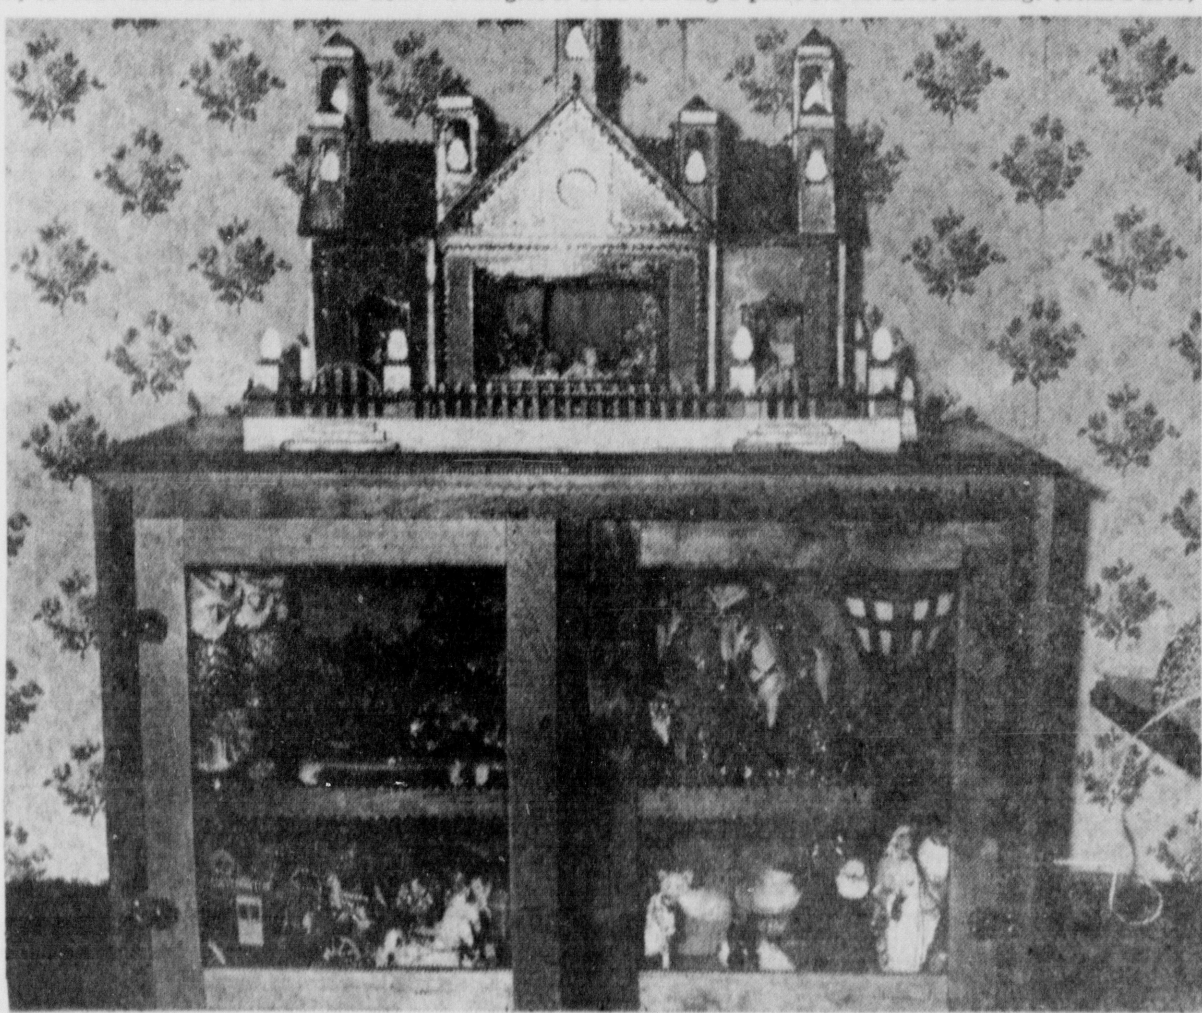

His wood is gathered from a house trailer works at Trotwood near Dayton. Mrs. Schlegler makes several trips a month to obtain discarded plywood.

She has become so well-known that company employees stop work to assist her. Schlegler works on his hobby in the washing shed, attached to his home.

In the winter, when it becomes cold, his hobby moves into the Schlegler kitchen and sometimes into the living room.

In addition to inlaid buildings, Schlegler installs electricity in his buildings plus model furniture and miniature fireplaces.

This is just another example of how men, accustomed to hard work and long hours, just can't quit toil altogether.

HOME MADE CABINET — Seen above is a home-made living room cabinet constructed by sheet metal worker turned wood craftsman, Charles Schlegler, 422 E. Franklin St. The cabinet is made of clear pine and inlaid. It holds his wife's "whatnots". On top of the dresser is a miniature church, complete with clock and electricity. Schlegler found retirement too dull and turned to this hobby of woodwork that has broadened into an ample supply of gifts for friends and relatives. For several years, Schlegler's wife, Anna, sold his wares at State Parks. (Staff Photo)

To Judge Kid Delinquency, Check Causes Behind It All

By G. K. HODENFIELD
AP Education Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Juvenile delinquency is a thing of time, place and circumstance. The childish prank of a 5-year-old may be hooliganism in a teenager.

Foul language is shocking in a classroom, but passes unnoticed in a street corner gang. To steal for kicks is outright crime, to steal because you're hungry and don't know where your next meal is coming from is crime tempered by the instinct to survive.

A panel of six experts, who have just concluded a nine-month study of juvenile delinquency for the National Education Assn., says a delinquent act can only be judged in relation to the forces that caused it. The specialists represent the fields of cultural anthropology, pediatrics, psychiatry, psychology, criminology and sociology.

Nearly everyone considers himself an expert on juvenile delinquency, and has firm ideas about its causes and cures. But, say the experts, it's not that simple, or delinquency would long since have ceased to be a major topic of national concern.

Over the years, says the NEA study, a great deal of fable and folklore has grown up around the problems of the adolescent.

Many people, for instance, point to working mothers as a major cause of delinquency. According to the experts, however, the effects of a working mother varies from family to family, neighborhood to neighborhood. More research is needed, they say, before this theory can be accepted.

Broken homes often are blamed. But it may be only because the youngster with two parents to back him gets a better break in court. The youngster from a broken home runs a bigger risk of being sent off to a state institution — and he's the one who gets mentioned in the newspapers.

The proposition that delinquents aren't really bright is a common assumption with little or no scientific support, according to the report.

Another popular idea knocked by the experts is that "a community with many playgrounds is a community with little delinquency." Carefully planned recreation programs can help, they say, if coordinated with other efforts, but their research indicates no direct relationship between such programs and delinquency rates.

Bad companions, heredity, poor physical health and slum neighborhoods also were cited by the experts as off-quoted causes of delinquency which really aren't. "Juvenile delinquency is not a 24-hour malady," says the report. "It does not develop overnight. Serious and persistent trouble with the law on the part of youngsters can be traced back to a long sequence of cause and effect."

The current report offers no pat solution for the juvenile delinquency problem because, the experts say, there just isn't any.

The report did make these points, however:

There is a desperate need for more and better research than ever has been attempted in the field.

Community efforts that have proven effective must be expanded, and useless practices discarded.

More and better efforts must be made to identify the delinquency bound youngster before he gets there.

Primarily, it said, "in seeking a cure for delinquency, the neighborhood, not the child, must be the patient."

STAND-IN, AND UP—Peter Pock gets up there where Lee Watson is via a pair of greatly elevated shoes as they work on movie in London. He's stand-in.

CLEVELAND (AP)—The price of milk here will be reduced one cent a quart, effective Friday. ## Castro Is Told Off By Panama Chiefs

PANAMA (AP) — Panama's government has told Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro to watch his tongue if he has hopes of getting back 86 Cubans who invaded Panama in an abortive attempt to a revolution.

Foreign Minister Miguel Moreno Jr. Tuesday rejected a request for repatriation of the Cubans made by Cuban Under Secretary of State Eric Agüero. Moreno told Agüero that the possibilities of repatriation were not helped by Castro's criticisms of President Ernesto de la Guardia's government for getting the help of the Organization of American States against the invaders.

Chevy's All New---All Over Again

For the second year in a row a completely new CHEVROLET has taken to the road — and its taking America by storm! It's no wonder when you consider that only the '59 CHEVY in the leading low-priced three, is a really NEW car. The other two in this class have had a face-lift and a few minor changes but they still look much like they did before. Chevy's new styling is truly contemporary — as fresh as tomorrow — and no competitive claims can obscure this fact.

There's more to Chevy's newness than meets the eye, with major advances and refinements in practically every area of automotive design. The '59 Chevy ride is softer, yet the handling is steeper, too. Longer wheelbase and wider tread add more stability on the road. Steering is easier and stopping is surer — tires are easier rolling, softer riding and longer lasting — and a new acrylic lacquer finish keeps its luster far longer. Inside, there's new roominess and new visibility that neither of the other two cars can match.

These are some of the features that make Chevrolet the most valuable car in its feild -- the '59 car thats wanted for all its worth!

New larger Vista-Panoramic Windshield
Improved high-level ventilation system
Safety PLATE Glass in every window
New Magic-Mirror Acrylic Lacquer finish

Electric Utilities

Rap PUCO Ruling

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A Utilities Commission order regulating natural gas operations is under fire from two Ohio electric companies.

Ohio Edison and Ohio Power companies say the order has discriminatory provisions.

The provisions are that a standby heating system must be installed in commercial buildings which use a large amount of gas heat. The standby system must use fuel other than natural gas.

But if the building has a gas air-conditioning system, the provisions say the standby heating system need not be installed.

The power firms are objecting on grounds that one service is conditioned on a customer's willingness to take another.

Akron Truck Firm Wins Safety Prize

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Trucking Assn., holding its annual convention here, has named the Dixie Ohio Express, Inc., of Akron, as grand trophy winner in the association's 1958 fleet safety contest.

The safety record was based on combined operations for general commodity fleets which drive in excess of five million miles annually.

Jack E. Ward, 29, a driver for the B & L Motor Freight, Inc., of Newark, received the association's driver-of-the-year award.

Ward was named Ohio's outstanding truck driver in recognition of an act instrumental in saving the lives of a Rochester, Ind. family. Driving through the city one winter in 1957, he noticed a red glow in a building and helped a family escape the fire.

FBI agents Tuesday arrested two of the men here and the third in West Virginia.

James Pobas Jr., about 40, and Robert P. Payne, 31, both of Canton, were nabbed here and taken to Cleveland under $50,000 bond each pending trial in Indiana.

Spahn Is Only 5th Southpaw To Win His 250th Game

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

In the four score and three years of major league baseball, only four left-handed pitchers ever had won 250 games. Now Warren Spahn is the fifth.

The southpaw put it away Wednesday night, beating the St. Louis Cardinals 3-2, and hoisting the Milwaukee Braves back into the National League lead.

It was Spahn's third shot at No. 250. Now 4-4 for the season, he had lost twice since bagging his 249th victory which also came against the Cards.

Spahn, who joined American League right-hander Early Wynn (253) of the Chicago White Sox as the only active pitchers with 250 victories, was happy, of course, with Wednesday night's decision, but he accepted it like an old pro. "It's just a stepping stone," he said, "to the one I really want — No. 300."

He figures he might reach 300 if he can stay a starting pitcher for at least two or three more years. Now 38 his age-to-victories ratio is in keeping with that of the other four lefties to win 250. Eddie Plank, an American (and Federal) League player, is the top southpaw winner with 325. Lefty Grove won 30. Eppa Rixey (266) and Carl Hubbell (253) are the only National League left-handers who won more than Spahn.

Elsewhere in the NL, San Francisco beat Philadelphia 6-0 on the two-hit pitching of Sam Jones, the Chicago Cubs rapped Cincinnati 10-0 behind Glen Hobbie's three-hitter, and Pittsburgh beat Los

Are Redlegs Tough Only On Home Lot?

CHICAGO (AP)—The idea is beginning to be kicked around in the National League that the Cincinnati Reds aren't too tough when they get away from the cozy confines of their own Crosley Field.

A 10-0 defeat by the Chicago Cubs Wednesday brought this comment from one veteran baseball writer:

"It begins to look as if the Reds are tailor-made to fit their own ball park but they'll fall flat on their faces once they get away."

And the statistics seem to bear him out.

The Reds have a 14-13 record but 11 of those games have been won at home. On the road, they have a dismal 3-7 record.

Wednesday's slaughter here wrote another chapter in Bob Purkey's unexplainable futility against the Cubs. Purkey, the Reds' top pitcher last year, didn't win a game from the Cubs in 1958 and he failed to beat them in two starts this year.

For two innings Wednesday it looked as if Purkey might have the jinx halted. Not a single Cub got to base off him in the first two innings.

And then, not only the roof but the entire building caved in on him. Six runs scored and the Redleg right-hander still didn't have a man out. The crusher was Ernie Banks' home run with the bases loaded.

That brought on Willard Schmidt in relief and the Cubs added one more run off him before he got the side out.

The Cubs got another run off Jim O'Toole in the seventh and two more in the eighth, also off O'Toole.

The winning pitcher was Glen Hobbie. He allowed Cincinnati only three hits and struck out six while giving five walks.

Joe Nuxhall tries to crack the Reds' road jinx today as he pitches against Chicago's Dave Hillman.

CHICAGO (AP)—"What do you have to do to win a fight?" fumed Ralph Dupas after losing to Charley Scott.

"I'm becoming known as the split decision kid," added the No. 2 welterweight contender. "Del Flanagan, Sugar Hart and now Scott get split decisions over me."

NEW YORK (AP)—The Cleveland Indians open a two-game series against the Red Sox in Boston Friday night with Jim (Mudcat) Grant doing the pitching. Herb Score will pitch the series finale Saturday afternoon.

Lines Hurls Win for Jets

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Miami Marlins found Columbus' Dick Lines a worthy competitor for their "family nights" at Miami Stadium.

The young left-hander reached into Miami's neighborhood and brought his family from nearby Fort Lauderdale to watch him stifle the International League-leading Marlins 7-1 for his third victory in four decisions this year.

Lines' family had never before seen him pitch a professional game before Wednesday night. And the Marlins, finding the family plan a great inducement for its oft-questioned baseball drawing potential, counted the Lines family among the 5,485 attendance. This was the Marlins biggest home turnout of the 1959 season.

In other IL action, Havana defeated the Richmond Vees 3-1. Rochester staggered to a 7-5 win over Buffalo and Toronto edged Montreal 4-3 in 11 innings.

Lines scattered seven hits and struck out seven while his mates jumped on loser Mickey McDermott and five successors for 14 hits.

Preakness Entries Set for Sprint

BALTIMORE (AP) — All four-legged members of the cast were on stage at Pimlico today, running through their last rehearsal for the 83rd showing of a two-minute drama called the $150,000-added Preakness.

Claiborne Farm's candidate, a smart-looking colt named Duncie, flew in Wednesday fresh from his victory Monday in a Belmont Park allowance race and ready for an effort to redeem his seventh place finish in the May 2 Kentucky Derby.

The arrival of the son of Tom Fool brought to 12 the number of 3-year-old thoroughbreds on the grounds and waiting for Saturday's race. If all perform, the race will be worth a $191,800 gross.

Myers Will Enter Lebanon Competition

Clarence Myers, 510 E. Main St., will drive Sunset Dale in the fifth race at Lebanon tomorrow night.

Sunset Dale, owned and trained by Myers at the Pickaway County Fairgrounds, will race in a D Pace over a one mile track.

Former pitcher Schoolboy Rowe is scouting for the Detroit Tigers.

SPORTS BRIEFS

DETROIT (AP) — This is the centennial of college baseball, and Wednesday Michigan and the University of Detroit set the game back 10 years.

It was a conventional 6-3 game until the eighth inning with Detroit leading. Then Michigan erupted for 21 runs in the final two innings and won 24-10.

Walker Cup Team Faces Tough Foe

MUIRFIELD, Scotland (AP) — American Walker Cup golfers play this weekend against a man who is so devoted to the thought of beating them that he has hit 600 practice shots a day since October.

The man is Joe Carr, a 37-year-old Irishman who was born and raised on a golf course in Dublin and who has spent much of his time playing golf ever since.

Carr and Reid Jack, a 35-year-old Scottish insurance man, form the backbone of the British Walker Cup team which meets the Americans under Captain Charles Coe in scotch foursomes Friday and in singles Saturday.

The matches will be over Muirfield's 6,806-yard seaside links.

British hopes of winning the Walker Cup for the first time since 1938 and for only the second time in history are higher this year than ever before.

Carr strung lights across part of the little Sutton course which borders his Dublin home. All winter long, without missing a single night, he made 600 or more practice shots.

The American players are: Thomas Aaron, Gainesville, Ga.; Deane Beman, Silver Spring, Md.; Jack Nicklaus, Columbus, Ohio; Ward Wetlaufer, 23, Buffalo, N. Y.; William Hyndman, Philadelphia; Billy Joe Patton, Morgantown, N.C.; Dr. Frank Taylor, Pomona, Calif.; Coe, Oklahoma City; and Harvie Ward, San Francisco.

Sluggish Roy Sievers of the Washington Senators averaged 175 as a bowler in the St. Louis Press-Radio-TV League.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of my dad, who passed away 8 years ago, May 14, 1951. I did not know the pain you had or hear your final sigh. I only know you passed away without a last goodbye. God gave us strength to face it and courage to bear the blow, but what it meant to lose you no one will ever know. Sadly missed by son William E. Bost and family, 710 Pine St., Chillicothe, O.

New Fluorescent Lamp, F-40 Now Simplifies GE Line

The local General Electric Lamp plant is in the process of changing over to manufacture the newly developed "F-40" fluorescent lamp. It was announced today by Edward G. Grigg, manager.

The "F-40" will be available for use on June 24. According to GE officials, this is a major step to reduce the number of fluorescent lamp types.

J. B. Foley, manager of Commercial & Industrial Sales for the G-E Large Lamp Department, Cleveland, states that the "F-40" may be used interchangeably in either Rapid Start or Preheat (starter) service.

It will become available about June 24, as it replaces stocks of the present G-E 40-watt Rapid Start and Preheat fluorescent lamp lines. These are the two most widely used types of fluorescent lamps in America today.

FOLEY POINTED OUT that this revolutionary step in fluorescent lamp simplification now makes it easier for customers and distributors to order, stock, and use fluorescent lamps.

It will eliminate for G-E users the complexity of handling two different basic lamp types, each available in seven different shades of white plus colors, which are identical in appearance.

"Introduction of the new 'F-40' will simplify ordering and record-keeping for everyone involved," Foley said. "It will reduce space and eliminate separate facilities now needed to warehouse and store 40-watt lamps, and it will make it easier for untrained personnel to handle and install them."

Refinements in lamp design have boosted initial light output of the "F-40" to 2800 lumens on both Rapid Start and Preheat circuits, he added. This will give it the lowest cost of light of any 40-watt fluorescent now in use.

Sole exception is the "Premium 3", announced by General Electric just two weeks ago. The "Premium 3", he noted, delivers a 3100-lumen output—the highest yet attained for standard 40-watt circuit equipment.

The 40-watt Rapid Start lamp developed and introduced by G. E. provided the basic lamp design which led to both the "F-40" and "Premium 3" lamps.

GENERAL ELECTRIC'S "F-40" fluorescent lamp is rated at 7500 hours life on Rapid Start and Preheat circuits. List price of the new lamp is $1.25, a reduction from the former Rapid Start list price of $1.30.

Although Preheat users will pay five cents more for the new lamp than the old, they, too, will get a bargain in light, Foley pointed out. The added value of approximately 6 per cent increased light output more than offsets the extra 4 per cent in original cost.

This bonus in added light output, Foley stated, can amount to an estimated value of more than $4 million a year to American users of the G-E "F-40".

Added savings in storage space and in clerical work connected with ordering lamps will bring even greater values, particularly to large users and distributors who will need stock only one type instead of two.

Mother of Accused Slayer Tells of Close Home Ties

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—"He was all my world and I was all his," said the mother of a 21-year-old accused slayer.

"I think we were closer than most," Mrs. Irene Smith went on. "He loved me as much as any boy could love his mother; with all his life and with all his heart from the time he was a little fellow until now as he sits there—my very dear son."

Mrs. Smith gazed from the witness chair at her son, David, on trial for first-degree murder in the rape-slaying of Mrs. Janice O. Porter, 24-year-old expectant mother.

Mrs. Smith, weeping during much of her testimony Wednesday, was the first defense witness called to support the defendant's plea of innocent by reason of insanity. Smith's attorneys have called him a "mama's boy," whose mind was warped because of his background.

Mrs. Smith, a 50-year-old school teacher whose husband left her when David was only 13 months old, made these points in her testimony:

Her son has never had a date with a girl.
He has always lived by the "hard and fast rule" that he "may not have friends in (the house) unless I am at home."

Much of his social life was in her presence.
"As a little fellow, I tucked him in bed. And as he grew older, for the last year or so, he insisted that he tuck me in bed at night, and he has been doing that regularly and kindly."

When he didn't do as he was told and talked back to her, "I would make him sit in a chair until he was ready to apologize." Recently she had to paddle him "once or twice."
David did not read books which she did not approve.

She knew he smoked cigarettes and had asked him to quit.
They shared the same bed until he was in the seventh or eighth grade. He had his first private bedroom when he was a freshman in high school.

The prosecution rested its case shortly before Mrs. Smith testified by calling the victim's husband, Myron Porter, 26, as its final witness. His testimony supported earlier claims that his wife had been raped.
